Well Comes in at 40 Barrels Hour on Half Choke, May Open Activity Near Galatia

Five HTHS Boys Admit Hurling Rock With Threatening Note to Teacher

Five high school boys have admitted they were the ones who took part in smashing a window with a rock that carried a threat to a member of the HTHS faculty, Chief of Police Ross Lane said today.

He said that civil authorities would hold a hearing into the matter after the case is heard at the school.

The boys, three seniors and two juniors, voluntarily admitted yesterday afternoon to a man teacher that they were the ones who threw the rock through a window at a local residence where the woman faculty member lived. The boys then went to the office of Principal E. F. Henson and made a "clean breast" of the entire affair.

Around the rock was a piece of adhesive tape which carried a threat telling the teacher to resign and leave or die. It was signed "The Blackhaws."

The incident occurred a week ago Wednesday night and since that time separate investigations by Chief Lane and Principal Henson had been in progress.

Mr. Henson today said that all five boys had been suspended from school pending disposition of the case. He said a hearing was scheduled today at the school, after which the matter will be turned over to civil authorities.

He said the boys could give no reason why they committed the act. None, he said, they told him, held any malice toward the teacher and that the act had not been planned. The five were together that evening, they told him, and decided to throw the rock containing the threat as a prank. They admitted which boy did the actual throwing of the rock.

Mr. Henson said the boys' con-

Mercury Plunges In New Cold Wave

A new cold wave pushed as far south as the Gulf of Mexico and carried freezing weather as far south as Tennessee today.

The Arctic air mass knifed out of Canada and sent the temperature plunging to 20 below zero at Aberdeen, S. D. It was zero or below through all the Dakotas, Nebraska and Minnesota.

In the East, private weather forecaster John Wallace predicted New York City would get 1 to 6 inches of snow in a "mixed up" rain and snow storm today.

The cold wave clamped freezing temperatures from New Jersey southwestward into southern Oklahoma and west and central Texas.

Cairo, Fairfield Speakers Encourage Historical Society's Museum Plans

Mrs. Guyla Moreland and Wason Lawrence were guest speakers at the Saline County Historical society meeting on Tuesday night. Mrs. Moreland is a reporter for the "Cairo Citizen" and Mr. Lawrence is a leading businessman of Fairfield.

The program, "The Society's Future Home," is a subject of vital importance to those members who have felt the need for a home and museum to house the historic objects and manuscripts now in the society's possession as well as those that will be given to them in the future.

Both Mrs. Moreland and Mr. Lawrence kept the members enthralled by stories of the activities of their societies. Mrs. Moreland told of the purchase and restoration of the beautiful Magnolia Manor. She explained that eleven civic clubs of Cairo lent their support and backing for two years in order for them to get started. After this period the historical society assumed the responsibility for the payments and support. The Manor besides housing a small museum is rented for meetings of civic clubs, parties and weddings, and rooms for tourists.

Delwood Brings in T. G. Lewis No. 1 From Aux Vases

Initial production of the Delwood Oil Company's T. G. Lewis No. 1, SEC SW NW, 15-8S-53 (Galatia township), was 40 barrels of oil an hour under half choke when a test was run late yesterday, it was announced this morning from the offices of the Delwood Co. at Benton.

The well, about two miles west of Galatia just off the blacktop road that leads from Route 34 to Harco, may open up activity in that area. It is a mile and a half west of the closest well, Oil Man, and from the closest well, Oil Man, is two miles and a half from other production.

The well, drilled for Delwood by the Ted Lindsey Drilling Co. of Mt. Vernon, was made in the Aux Vases, where 18 feet of saturation was found between 2853 and 2871. It was drilled to a total depth of 3061.

The Delwood company is composed of Amos S. Wood, Wendell Williams and Dann L. Wood II. The well was drilled on land owned by Atty. T. G. Lewis of Benton. Atty. Lewis and John Keen of Benton own the mineral rights. Bud Rue of Mt. Vernon is the geologist.

Delwood has 270 acres under lease around where this well came in. A large number of interested persons were on hand yesterday for the test.

Knowland and Kefauver Step Up Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. William F. Knowland (R-Calif.) and Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) appeared a step closer today to becoming avowed candidates for president.

Friends of Knowland disclosed the Senate Republican leader will announce his candidacy by late January or early February. They said he would do so even if President Eisenhower has failed to reveal his plans by that time.

In the Kefauver camp informed sources said the Tennessee Democrat has selected F. Joseph Donohue, Washington attorney and former District of Columbia commissioner, to manage his campaign for the Democratic nomination. They said Donohue's appointment will be confirmed when Kefauver formally announces his candidacy in a week or 10 days.

Friends of Knowland said the Californian feels he would be justified in entering state Republican presidential primaries even if Mr. Eisenhower has not revealed his plans before the primary deadlines.

But these associates said Knowland expects Mr. Eisenhower to announce next month whether he will seek a second term. Knowland believes political pressure will compel an early announcement from the President.

Poultry-Dealer's Son Charged With Murders

BELLEVILLE, Ill. (AP)—A well-to-do poultry dealer's son orally confessed today that he murdered a young Lebanon, Ill., farm couple but pleaded he could not remember the actual slaying.

Fillmore Young, 34-year-old Negro, was charged in two warrants with first degree murder after St. Clair county authorities unraveled the 13-day old mystery of the couple's disappearance.

State police said Young confessed the killing after an hour's questioning when he was first arrested at the home of his father, a well-regarded Negro farmer near Carlyle, Ill.

However, a deputy sheriff said Young "went into an amnesia act" when authorities sought a signed statement that he killed Harold Smith, 30, and his wife, Arlene, 35.

In a brief signed statement, Young said he went to the Smith home while he was drunk and "fell asleep" the night of Nov. 27.

Put bodies in car

"I woke during the night and saw the bodies on the floor and the gun in my hand," he said. "When I removed the bodies from the Smith home, both were dead. There were no signs of life."

The 22 caliber pistol, recovered from the basement of the Young home, was being checked to determine if it was the same weapon used in the slaying two years ago of school teacher Edgar Allen Schaeffer, also an apparently motiveless crime.

Young said he put Smith's body in the trunk of his car and his wife's into the rear seat and dumped Smith's body first, down the shaft of a well. When his car got stuck on the way to dispose of the other body, he said, he transferred Mrs. Smith's body to the trunk and got two farmers to tow his automobile.

A tip to police by one of the farmers, Elmer Higgins, led to Young's arrest.

Young's account of the double slaying was hazy and omitted many details. He said he had been drinking with a girl in East St. Louis all day Sunday Nov. 26 and couldn't remember anything about going to the Smith home at Lebanon. He said he didn't know the Smiths.

Young insisted he was alone although Chief Deputy Sheriff Clifford Flood said he believed another person was involved.

Flood said Young told him: "I know I'm doomed and that I will die in the electric chair."

State policeman Dean Abernathy said Young was vague on the details of the killing.

"I don't know why I did it," Young was quoted.

Rich Chicago Brewer, Underworld Multi-Millionaire, is Slain

CHICAGO (AP) — Police feared today that a new Chicago beer war may have claimed as its first victim Alex (Louie) Greenberg, financial genius and brewery king of the Capone crime syndicate.

Four bullets ended Greenberg's rise-to-riches career as he stepped from a restaurant Thursday night. His wife watched in horror as the underworld multi-millionaire staggered after his two assailants only to crumple in the middle of a dingy street.

Greenberg, 64, was the guiding force behind the Canadian Ace Brewing Co., which traces its origin straight back to the heyday of Al Capone and the bloody beer wars of Chicago's prohibition days.

Tavern owners on Chicago's South Side have been complaining recently that Canadian Ace representatives were returning to the "muscle" tactics of the roaring 20's to push their product. An immediate investigation was started to determine whether these strong arm tactics, which triggered the beer wars of 30 years ago, had resulted in Greenberg's assassination.

Roundup And Inquest

A roundup of known underworld figures was ordered and an inquest was scheduled for later today.

Police were also mindful that Greenberg was the fifth underworld figure connected with a two million dollar shakedown of the movie industry to meet a violent death.

Only last month pudgy Willie Bielt, key witness in the conviction of four top underworld figures in the 1943 trial, was blown to pieces by a dynamite blast as his Phoenix, Ariz., home. Greenberg was also a prosecution witness in the trial and at least one of the defendants threatened at the time to "get him."

Two other members of the group, Charles "Cherry Nose" Gioe and Frank Maritote, were cut down by gangland guns in Chicago within a few days of each other in August, 1934. Both had served prison terms for their roles in the giant shakedown.

Richest Of All

Greenberg, the richest of the lot, was killed after he had eaten a meal with his wife Pearl, 43, at the Glass Dome Hickory Pit Restaurant, located close to the Canadian Ace headquarters.

Mrs. Greenberg had just entered their car when two men slipped up behind her husband. She heard him exclaim "No!" a second before two shots ripped into his body.

Greenberg held on to life, grabbing the open car door and dragging himself erect. He stumbled after the fleeing men until he reached the center of the street.

The gunmen wheeled and fired three more shots. Greenberg went down and his slayers darted up an alley.

Greenberg was dead on arrival at a hospital with bullets above his left eye and in his abdomen, groin and left arm. Only one witness aside from his wife saw the killers. They were described as young, hatless, and wearing dark clothes.

Indict Evansville Man for Murder

MOUNT VERNON, Ind. (AP) — Leslie Irvin, 31, Evansville, Ind., on trial in Princeton for the slaying of filling station attendant W. Wesley Kerr, was indicted late Thursday on a murder charge for the sixth time.

A Posey County grand jury indicted Irvin in the death of Mrs. John W. Sailer, 47, near here last March 21.

Two murder indictments previously were returned against Irvin in Vanderburgh County and three more in Henderson County, Ky.

To Reduce New Harmony Bridge Tolls Saturday

CARMEL, Ill. — New Harmony bridge tolls will be reduced effective Saturday, Roy Clippinger, manager of the White County Bridge commission which controls the bridge across the Wabash river, announced today.

Here is the rate schedule: Cars and pickup trucks will pay 15 cents each way instead of the present 50 cents for one trip or 60 cents for round fare. The fare of 50 cents one way and 75 cents a round trip for trucks and buses will be reduced to 25 cents one way.

Clippinger announced a new member of the bridge commission, Ulys Pyle, who replaces the late Jennings Marlin. Pyle is a Carmel lawyer, member of the law firm, Pyle and McCallister.

Ike Meets with Cabinet; Farm Issue Discussed

THURMONT, Md. (AP)—President Eisenhower met with his Cabinet at his mountain retreat here today to outline his forthcoming State of the Union message to Congress and to discuss the difficult farm problem.

Mr. Eisenhower drove in from his Gettysburg, Pa., farm 22 miles away.

Tipoff that the difficult farm situation was up for discussion was the fact that Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson took two of his top aides into rustic Laurel Lodge for the Cabinet session.

One agricultural aide told newsmen there has been some discussion by the administration of a proposal by Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) for a federal bonus program to promote a cut in pork production. He did not elaborate.

The two officials with Benson were Undersecretary of Agriculture True D. Morse and Asst. Secretary Earl Butz.

Mr. Eisenhower met here Thursday with the National Security Council. That meeting ended in the early afternoon and the President motored back to his Gettysburg farm to spend the night.

There still is some doubt in official circles whether Mr. Eisenhower, recuperating from a Sept. 24 heart attack, will deliver his State of the Union message to Congress in person.

A few weeks ago White House staff members discussed a plan under which the President would deliver in person a brief preamble to his annual and most basic message to Congress, then spell out the details of his 1956 legislative recommendations in a mimeographed statement.

Today there were indications that Mr. Eisenhower might not appear before Congress at all, but might send the State of the Union message entirely in written form and possibly appear before a joint session of the House and Senate in the spring.

Dedicate Plaques To Honor Senior Kentucky Solon

Gov. Weatherby, Sen. Barkley Also Appear on Program

The new bridge spanning the Ohio river from Shawneetown to Union county, Kentucky, was officially named the Earle C. Clements Bridge Thursday afternoon.

Icy winds swirled across the river as a crowd of more than 300 listened to brief speeches by Kentucky dignitaries and music by bands from neighboring high schools.

The bridge is named in honor of Earle C. Clements, senior United States Senator from Kentucky, a native of Morganfield, 13 miles from the bridge site.

Appearing on the program to dedicate the plaques proclaiming the bridge to be the "Earle C. Clements Bridge" were Governor Lawrence Wetherby, Sen. Clements, Senator Alben Barkley, William H. Natcher of Bowling Green, congressman from Kentucky's second district, resident engineers and members of the Union County Fiscal Court.

The bridge, being constructed at a cost of $6,500,000, is scheduled for completion early in April, 1956, and a formal opening and program of dedication will be held at that time.

Senator Clements has been active in public service for many years and was referred to by Senator Barkley, a resident of Paducah, as "former governor, senator, county clerk, county judge, sheriff, justice of the peace" and "I can't remember the rest of them because I was too young."

The plaques, at each end of the bridge, bear this inscription—"The Earle C. Clements Bridge, Named In Honor Of A Beloved Union Countain, A Great Kentuckian, Patriot And Statesman, Lawrence W. Wetherby, Governor, Mitchell W. Tindler, Commissioner, October 11, 1955."

Following the ceremony of dedication a reception was held at the American Legion home in Morganfield.

Announce Draft Call of 6,000 Men for February

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department today announced a draft call of 6,000 men for February—the lowest draft call since the start of the Korean War.

The Defense Department at the same time said that the previously announced draft call for January is being reduced from 8,000 to 6,000 men.

The reduction in draft calls reflected two factors: High Navy re-enlistments permitting the service not to use the draft in February, and the continuing reduction in Army strength.

CHICAGO (AP) — Illinois will draft approximately 360 men, 22 to 26 years old, to answer the February call for 6,000 men, Col. Paul G. Armstrong, state selective service director, said today.

The state's quota for January has been cut from 480 to 360, in compliance with the national reduction, Armstrong said. Local draft boards throughout the state have been notified of their smaller quotas, he said.

State Police Raids In Coles County

MATTOON, Ill. (AP)—Three Coles county establishments were raided Thursday afternoon by state police gambling squads and Capt. John L. Murphy, Champaign, who led the raids, said owners and patrons would face gambling charges today.

Murphy said a total of $2,900 in cash and various gambling equipment was seized at Don Knight's Recreation, Mattoon; Cooley's Pool Hall, Charleston; and the White Owl card stop, on U. S. 45 near Mattoon.

Labor's New Responsibility

Editorial — By BRUCE BISSAT

With the nation's two great labor organizations, the AFL and CIO, merging into one huge federation, Big Labor is entering a new era in which it faces both a beckoning opportunity and a rising responsibility.

Now to be 15,400,000 strong, the united organization obviously will have enhanced power and prestige. It will be able to speak in more forceful tones in its dealings with the business community, in its forays into politics, and in the councils of international labor.

Having this greater power, it may act as a stronger magnet than the two separate organizations did to the hundreds of independent unions which have chosen to remain outside the AFL or CIO. Likewise, it may exert greater pulling power on millions of unorganized workers.

In the past inter-federation raiding has been a great source of trouble in the labor movement. Presumably, this sort of thing will now largely disappear and the combined groups can concentrate on more fruitful objectives.

They themselves believe their greater strength gives them an unparalleled chance to work for higher living standards among the nation's workers. This is indeed a worthy goal, and the extent to which the new federation realizes it may be the single best measure of its ultimate effectiveness.

But clearly this great power and the opportunity it brings are inseparable from a higher sense of responsibility. The men who will lead the new organization are taking on burdens the like of which they have never known before.

Big as they are, they still represent less than 25 per cent of the country's 65 million man labor force. They cannot in fairness press the interests of their workers at the expense of other workers or of the community at large.

If they do, they will bring down the wrath of other groups on their heads, and cost their workers more than they can get for them. Moreover, they must at all times be careful not to push their demands beyond the reasonable capacity of the economy to absorb them. The result of excessive pressure can only be to squeeze the economy dry and cripple its ability to serve them and every other segment of the nation.

For another thing, labor must cast its political weight with caution. Any attempt to take over a political party or place its stamp unmistakably on a party seems likely to backfire, and again to draw the wrath of others. Labor by now ought to have seen enough of how the public reacts to extremes of political action on its part.

If the men at the helm of the new federation can wield their combined strength thus responsibly, they should indeed preside over the winning of fresh rewards for America's workingmen. Gained in that way, those rewards would benefit us all.

Firm's Employees Get Drinks on House

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)— Nearly 1,000,000 cups of coffee, soft drinks and glasses of milk are dispensed annually to employees of a Kansas City firm that started a custom of free refreshments more than 20 years ago by serving iced tea in the afternoon.

The victim was Samuel G. Shrode, Grandview, Ill., attached to the Newport Naval Base. Four other sailors and a woman were uninjured.

Police said a tire blow-out sent the car into a tree.

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

DREW PEARSON Says: While Ike's Away The White House Squirrels Play; Charley Wilson Didn't Mourn When Harlow Curtice Got His Knuckles Rapped.

WASHINGTON. — The Geneva spirit may be going to heck in a hand-basket; war may be threatening in the Near East; and Secretary Dulles may rival "Foot-in-Mouth" Charley Wilson when it comes to saying the wrong thing at the wrong time. But at least one thing is better as a result of Ike's illness: The squirrels are having a wonderful time on the White House lawn.

All you have to do is go down to the White House and look at them. They're scampering everywhere. They're so bold and brazen it almost seems they've read the papers and know the boss is in Gettysburg.

White House guards won't say anything about it. Usually they are expansive and loquacious. They lead kind of a lonesome life standing around the White House in little guardhouses, and usually like to talk to people. But when it comes to squirrels — well, they're as tight-lipped as the Washington Monument.

White House gardeners have the putting green behind the White House in excellent shape now, waiting the day when the nation's No. 1 golfer returns. And somehow or other the squirrels haven't molested it. Maybe they learned their lesson. Or maybe the explanation of White House assistant press secretary Murray Snyder is the answer. Murray was approached on this subject. After all, he's paid to talk.

"We studied their habits and found there were only four squirrels causing the damage," he explained. Perhaps the inference was that the squirrels were Democrats. Anyway, they were transferred elsewhere.

Anyway, while Ike's away, the squirrels that remain are having a wonderful time.

WASHINGTON PIPELINE

Secretary of Defense Charley Wilson, once head of General Motors, wasn't a bit unhappy over the Senate predicament of the man who succeeded him, Harlow Curtice. Perhaps Charley remembered how glad Curtice was to have Charley get out. Several months ago, Curtice had refused to attend Senate hearings unless subpoenaed. He got the subpoena and the results have been interesting. The five-year contract hastily given General Motors dealers was a victory for Frederick J. Bell, executive vice president of the National Auto Dealers Association, who has been working for better protection between dealers and all motor manufacturers. . . . Testified Alfred Sloan, GM chairman, before Senator O'Mahoney: "It's easy to get into the appliance business. . . . It doesn't take a great amount of capital to go into these things. All they had to do was put up 12 or 20 millions, which is not a large amount for industry." . . . Curtice is the man who's been opposed to the Eisenhower wing of the GOP and has recently fought the Henry Ford-Eisenhower Republicans in Michigan. . . . Before Smith moved his family to Washington, he did fly in Pan Am's executive transport with Pryor to Greenwich on week ends. Smith is in charge of personnel, however, and had nothing to do with Pan Am's Air Force contract.

Money Troubles Discussed at Illinois School Problems Commission Meeting

CARBONDALE, Ill. — More comprehensive local tax assessments are needed to increase school revenue in southern Illinois, educators and legislators agreed Wednesday in an Illinois School Problems Commission hearing at Southern Illinois university.

Wide differences of opinion were voiced, however, on another phase of school financing—state aid and how to provide it.

Money troubles dominated discussion during the day-long meeting, at which ten speakers from throughout the south part of the state presented various school problems and suggested solutions.

The hearing, at which Senator David Davis, Bloomington, presided, opened with a welcome from SIU President Delyte W. Morris.

Mrs. George B. Carty, Marion, director of District 17, Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers, ran into opposition from some members of the commission when she advocated a state board of education and called for re-establishing a separate state fund for school lunch programs.

Stressing the increase in school transportation costs in recent years, H. M. Waddle, superintendent of schools at Noble, recommended legislation permitting a special levy for transportation.

Ruel Hindman, member of the Anna-Jonesboro Community school board, urged Southern Illinois school administrators to "look in their own back yards" for increased revenue.

"It is my contention that in most school districts if all real estate

Bona Fide Federation Holds Regular Meeting

The Bona Fide Federated club held its December meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Verda North, who presided over the business session.

The program opened with the singing of the club song to the tune of "Illinois" led by the chaplain, Mrs. Willie Lowe. She also read I Cor. 13 and offered prayer.

The club annually sends Christmas cheer to the sick and shut-ins and pledges for this were paid and a committee appointed to help the president in this effort.

Archie Stewart, a former resident of Harrisburg now living in Cleveland, Ohio, also nephew of Mrs. North, gave the Christmas boxes for this year. These boxes will be filled at the Christmas party Dec. 20 at the home of Mrs. Helen Williams. Mrs. Frances Parker will be hostess. Gifts will be exchanged at that time.

The club voted to make a donation to the Tuberculosis fund.

Christmas Party Enjoyed by Members of St. Ann's Altar Society

The gifts for exchange were piled on a table around a lighted Christmas tree flanked with blue candelabra.

BRUSSELS, Belgium — Rumors that Group Capt. Peter Townsend had found a new love—a Dutch countess—were dismissed as "nonsense" by both parties today.

In a statement issued through the British embassy here, Townsend said:

sides housing the present library the facilities were constructed so that they will meet the needs of the city of Fairfield for years to come. A room of considerable size was included in the building to house an historic library and meeting place for the Wayne County society. The ultimate goal is to furnish material with indexes and cross indexes so that any phase of Wayne county history is at the fingertips of anyone interested.

Mr. Lawrence told of the cooperation received from the city council, the churches, and civic clubs of Fairfield. He explained that in organizing the drive no person was omitted. He believes that civic minded persons are interested in a monument that will reflect the culture of their time. He thinks each person is willing to help even if only in a small way. He advised the Saline county society to start at once to make plans for the future. He assured the members that they could expect cooperation from unthought of sources. He expressed the hope that civic minded individuals would welcome the chance to make requests to such a worthy undertaking.

Discuss Projects

A general discussion followed and Mrs. Moreland and Mr. Lawrence continued to explain step by step their methods of procedure. Three projects under consideration by the Saline county society were discussed with members and guests participating. The meeting aroused so much enthusiasm that the social hour committee served cranberry tea and cookies while the discussion continued. Many remained to thank Mrs. Ray Durham, Mrs. D. F. Rumsey, Mrs. Wm. Farley, and

Dirksen Praises Benson's Courage

CHICAGO — Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) said Thursday "I glory in the courage of Ezra Benson" in his fight to defend administration farm policies.

Dirksen praised the agriculture secretary in a Union League Club speech and added it is "fantastic" to think of returning to rigid support price programs.

The programs of former Democratic administrations are responsible for present "farm troubles," Dirksen said.

Gov't to Advise Chinese In U. S. They May Go to Red China

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government will soon place in 40,000 U. S. post offices notices that all Chinese nationals in the United States are free to go to Red China if they want, it was learned today.

The move is designed to persuade Communist China to free the 14 Americans still held on the Chinese mainland. The United States wants to prove to Red China it is leaving no stone unturned to carry out its part of a Sept. 10 agreement on release of each other's nationals.

The Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, as large as the United States east of the Mississippi, contains less than 9,000,000 inhabitants.

Fur-Like Coats Need Cleaning Care

URBANA, Ill. (AP)—Those fur-like coats advertised as "more like fur than fur itself" are good buys, says Edna Gray, University of Illinois clothing specialist. But they need special care.

Check with the retailer on how best to clean them, she said. Some manufacturers recommend "drum-cleaning," just as fur coats are cleaned, because the heat in regular dry-cleaning processes may distort the pile. Others recommend regular dry-cleaning.

In ironing the lining, she said, don't let the iron touch the fabric. This will damage the pile.

More than 750,000 persons in the United States are employed full-time in the manufacture and distribution of lumber.

Have You Been a Good Girl?

SANTA CLAUS hands out some candy and an orange to one of his visitors last night during his annual pre-Christmas visit to Harrisburg kids, and there was no doubt in her mind that there really is a Santa Claus. In spite of the bad weather, approximately 600 children got to see Santa and tell him about their good behavior and what they wanted for Christmas.

Santa's Little Helpers . . . The Harrisburg Jaycees

BECAUSE THERE WERE SO MANY CHILDREN TO SEE, Santa had to have a little help, as he does each year, and the Harrisburg Jaycees, who invite him to Harrisburg every year, pitched in and helped prepare the candy for his visit. This year the Jaycees dispensed with their regular business meeting last Tuesday night and wrapped 7500 candy suckers for Santa Claus to hand out. An annual project of the Jaycees, the Santa Claus visit was co-sponsored this year by the Harrisburg Businessmen's Association, and was considered quite successful in spite of last night's unfavorable weather. ## Benson Urges Farmers to Cut Pig Production

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson urged today that farmers voluntarily hold down spring pig production in an effort to jack up live hog prices.

Hog prices have dropped more than 40 per cent in the last year, cutting deeply into farm income. The average price for good butcher hogs on the Chicago market a year ago was $17.89. Thursday the price was $10.64. Prices have declined rapidly in the last few weeks.

"We are very much concerned about the low hog prices of recent weeks," Benson said in a statement issued here after he attended a Cabinet meeting at President Eisenhower's mountain retreat in Thurmont, Md. Benson said the department will "continue and emphasize every practical step which can help relieve the adverse situation for producers." He referred to the special programs "to expand the marketing of pork products" such as the recent pork purchase plan and the plentiful foods program.

His statement followed Thursday's announcement of the heaviest buying to date under the federal pork purchase program.

Benson called the attention of farmers to the "advisability of careful planning now for the farrowing of 1956 spring pigs, in order to avoid a repetition of the heavy production which has forced hog prices down this fall." The spring pig crop usually accounts for about 60 per cent of the annual pig supply.

U. S. Rejects Pledge Against Use A-Weapons

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States today rejected Russia's demand for a pledge not to be the first to use atomic weapons as an invitation to "suicide."

U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. made a strong appeal before the United Nations main political committee for endorsement of a four-power disarmament resolution giving top priority to President Eisenhower's "open sky" arms inspection plan.

Argentina proposed that the U. N. set up a small-power committee to study all disarmament proposals and propose the "most logical formula" for agreement among the big powers. Argentina sponsored a similar move at the 1948 General Assembly in an effort to end the Berlin blockade.

Referring to the Soviet proposal to avoid use of nuclear weapons, Lodge told the committee:

"If an international agreement makes it impossible for a law-abiding power to use them first, even in dire extremity of self-defense against a massive aggression, then that power which is strongest in conventional means of warfare would be immediately established as the strongest military power on earth. And it would still have a reserve of its own nuclear weapons sufficient to strike devastating blows."

"The true democracies of the world, by their very way of life, have traditionally been forced to accept the first blows in war. Thus, they generally concede a great strategic initiative. Should they also agree not to use their most powerful weapons in their own defense after taking that first blow, they would be committing suicide."

THE STORY: Although Capt. Jered Naish and Phoebe Proctor are to be wed, Phoebe's father wants Jered to take the whaler Obis to sea before the wedding. Although both Jered and Phoebe are disheartened, Phoebe is a sailor's daughter and tells her sweet heart he must go.

III
Tom Beale, who had lost a leg some years back in a Proctor ship, was the cutter skipper. He stood on the after deck and squinted thoughtfully aloft as Jered and his father embraced in silence. Then Phillip Naish mumbled, "Good sailing to you" and was gone. Beale's boy and Beale had already hefted the chest aboard. "If you'd like to make use of the weather, sir," Beale said, "we'd better be under way."

"Aye," Jered Naish said. The well-known sensations of sadness and subdued excitement that came with the commencement of every new voyage were gathering in him. "Is Miss Phoebe aboard?"

"In the cabin, sir."

"Shove off, then. I'll be below with her should you want me."

Phoebe sat on the red plush settee in the fore part of the elaborately decorated cabin. She wore a dark woolen cape that gave a cept to her pallor. "This is stuffy here," she said whispering. "Can we go on deck?"

"When they have the sails set."

The cutter had taken the wind and was running free, and from the sounds on deck Jered knew that Beale was at the tiller, the boy forward on lookout. He raised Phoebe from the settee, thrust her before him up the companionway. The moonlight shimmered on the huge mainsail that was one of Captain Proctor's particular delights.

"How beautiful it could all be," Phoebe said. They sat shoulder to shoulder forward of the mast, as the cutter rolled in the small seaway.

He took her hand. "I'll be coming back to you. We'll have our own home, our youngsters. Don't you lose hope."

The wind made vague what she said in reply, and he didn't dare to ask her to repeat it. He had never seen Phoebe so sad, so downcast, and he was greatly troubled. He gazed shoreward bleakly to see that the boat was out through Cat Island Channel and standing well with the Westerly on a broad reach to the South. He tightened his arm around Phoebe. "I love you, love you, love you!" he said.

The cutter was close in under the counter before they were given any attention. Then it came in a gusty shout, a scream. A whole chorus of screams, yells and curses and shouts followed.

Men, men and drunken hands who had no desire to go to sea, were being knocked around on the main deck of the Obis. A belaying pin struck bone. A mate's fist smacked punctuation to the shout, "Lay 'er d, you!"

Phoebe kept completely motionless beside him in the cutter's cockpit. But she said in a harsh voice, "Don't leave me, Jered. Take me along, please."

He stared at her, only partly aware that Beale and the boy were fending off the cutter and hanging onto a boat-rop along the ship's side. It was possible, he realized. He could take her with him. There were marrying parsons in Boston who'd come out and make the splice. But Phoebe shouldn't go aboard this ship.

A man was at the taffrail and trying to leap across it. Blood was down his twisted, stunned face. His mouth gaped over broken teeth. "I'm no sailor, and they won't let me leave."

Mr. Cupp came to strike the mar down out of sight. Mr. Cupp wore a tarpaullin hat and an almost le smile. "Excuse us, Miss and Cap'n," he said. "The rescue won't rightly know to what he put his name. Have the ladder ready in stancher, sir, and here's a line for your chest."

Tom Beale took and made fast the line. He held the bottom rung of the Jacob's ladder while Jered still stared at Phoebe. "You think you can't," she said. "You'd have me believe it's wrong. Cupp's a brute, the crew will be beaten into being sailors; the quarters aren't correct; I haven't the right clothes. Things like that are holding you back. But you must take me. I tell you so with all my heart."

"There's no way," Jered Naish said. "It would be mad to let you come into such a ship."

"But you'll take her out. Why?"

"Because I'm a sailor and it's my job and I've given my word." He reached to kiss her, was stepping backward in the cockpit. Then she stopped. She smiled as though at some joke. "Mother would say, 'amn't I the nippy to carry on so. Of course you have to sail this ship, and I can't go with you. It's a foolish idea that came all of a sudden to me. If other women can wait, I will. Goodbye, dear heart. Best of luck. If you get the chance, write me. I'll—I'll be home." Her hands went against his shoulders with exceptional strength to push him toward the ladder.

He took the ladder stride by rapid stride and sprang down over the rail to the ship's main deck. "Clear those lubbers into the fore's'c for the time being," he said furiously to Mr. Cupp. "Send your full afterguard to the wind-llass. I'm bound for sea."

"That ain't fit style," Mr. Cupp said.

"It's mine, though," Jered Naish said. He met the mate's eyes in a deliberate stare.

Bull Dogs Face Benton, Carrier Mills This Week

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs have two basketball games on tap for this week-end, meeting Benton here tonight in a South Seven conference game and traveling to Carrier Mills to meet the county rivals tomorrow evening.

The Bull Dogs, who have dropped their two opening tilts, to Carni and Herrin, will be trying to break into the win column this week. Benton has bowed to Eldorado earlier this year but Coach Ralph Davison's quintet will be formidable opposition for the locals.

The locals will have to hold down the point total of Big Oliver Rollins to win at Carrier Mills. The huge center has been outstanding in every game this year — his fourth season as a regular at Carrier Mills.

There are two other South Seven games tonight, Marion at Mt. Vernon and West Frankfort at Centralia, leaving Herrin the only team playing outside the loop. The Tigers travel to Johnston City.

Herrin, however, gets into South Seven competition tomorrow evening, entertaining Benton. Mt. Vernon goes to Alton, West Frankfort entertains Zeigler, Centralia is host to Springfield and Du Quoin goes to Marion in Saturday night tilts featuring South Seven teams.

An interesting game in southern Illinois Saturday night will be the tilt at Pinckneyville between the Panthers and Edwardsville. Coach Joe Lucio, who won the Egyptian holiday tournament here last year, has another good team and Pinckneyville is reported to be outstanding.

Cubs Sell Frankie Baumholtz to Phillies

CHICAGO — The Chicago Cubs today announced the sale of outfielder Frankie Baumholtz to the Philadelphia Phillies.

A club spokesman said that the veteran outfielder, who is 36, was sold for an undisclosed sum because he "doesn't fit into future plans" for the Cubs.

Baumholtz came to the Cubs in June, 1949, from the Cincinnati Redlegs. In recent years he has been used as a fill-in outfielder and as a pinch-hitter. He batted .289 in 105 games in 1955, although his pinch-hitting average was .405.

Dairy Brands Drop 79-71 Tilt to Herrin

The Harrisburg Dairy Brands dropped a 79-71 basketball decision to the Herrin independents Wednesday. The game was played in the Raleigh grade school gym.

Dawson of Herrin was the game's high scorer with 24. Don Price paced the Dairy Brands with 22 points.

Harrisburg plays at Equality Monday night.

Trucks Signs Detroit Contract

DETROIT — Veteran pitcher Virgil (Fire) Trucks, who returned to the Detroit Tigers in a deal with the Chicago White Sox last week, has signed his 1956 contract with the Bengals. Trucks, who hurled for the Tigers for 10 years, had a 13-8 record with the Sox in 1955.

Beal Selected Most Valuable HTHS Grid Player

Charles "Tony" Beal was selected as the most valuable HTHS football player of 1955 in a survey conducted by The Purple Clarion, school newspaper.

Tony was the unanimous choice of local sportscasters and reporters. He was cited as an excellent line-backer, a fine passer, and a rough ground-gainer.

One sportswriter noted on his questionnaire that Beal "was no prima donna but was always willing to do what was best for the team. His fine, clean life should be a challenge to all boys who go out for athletics." Others observed that it was difficult to explain his not being chosen on all of the all-state teams this season.

Being most valuable player on this edition of the gridiron Bull Dogs is another in a long list of honors Tony has garnered in his high school career. He was picked for the South Seven all-star second team as a junior. This year he made the conference first team on offense, the Southern Illinois all-star team, and received special mention on several all-state teams. He was honorary co-captain this year.

Campanella Wins Most Valuable Player Award

NEW YORK — Roy Campanella, who climaxed baseball's "comeback story of the year" by winning his third most valuable player award, said today he wished Brooklyn Dodger teammate Duke Snider "had won this one."

"Winning the award three times is just an overwhelming experience and I can't say how happy I am," the brilliant Negro catcher said. "But, at the same time, I really wish Duke could have won this one. He's such a great hitter and, after all, I did win the award twice before."

Campanella, who also won the award in 1951 and 1953, beat out Snider this year in one of the closest races in history. The 34-year-old backstop polled 226 points to Snider's 221 and was named on each of the 24 ballots while the slugging Brooklyn outfielder was left completely off one.

Ernie Banks, the Chicago Cubs' brilliant shortstop, was third with 135 points while Willie Mays of the New York Giants, who won in 1954, was fourth with 165. Robin Roberts, Ted Kluszewski, Don Newcombe, Stan Musial, Hank Aaron and Peeewe Reese rounded out the top 10.

Praises Teammate

Campanella, who batted .318, hit 32 home runs and drove in 107 runs in 123 games for the world champions, emphasized repeatedly that "my teammates deserve a tremendous amount of the credit." "You just have to stand out when you play with a team like the Dodgers," he said. "There are so many good players that they just make you press all the way to keep up with them."

Campanella refused to predict flatly that he will become the first player in history to win the award four times but warned, "I've still got a lotta good baseball left in me."

"I feel great, I like to play and I'm gonna go out and try to play every day next year," he said. "I'm not predicting I'll win it again but I'll sure be in there trying."

Campanella's selection by the 24 members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America rounded out a great year for catchers — Yogi Berra of the New York Yankees having won his third American League award only last Saturday.

Dr. Joyce Brothers Would Like for Robinson to Win

CHICAGO — Dr. Joyce Brothers, whose knowledge of the fight game won her $64,000 on a television program, believes that Bobo Olson will win tonight's midweight title bout but says she "would love to see" Ray Robinson win.

"It would make a much better story if the underdog won, and I am to write my impressions of the fight for the United Press," the attractive blonde psychologist said.

Dr. Brothers said she hasn't had much opportunity to observe Robinson closely in his recent comeback bouts.

"But I don't agree that Sugar Ray's inactivity harmed his legs as some say. After all, he spent his time away from the ring pursuing a dancing career, and dancing helps to keep legs in trim."

The 28-year-old light expert said she became interested in boxing shortly after she wrote her doctorate thesis at Columbia University. It was called "Experimental studies of avoidance, anxiety and escape behavior in humans as measured by action potential in muscle."

From this she said it was only a short step to becoming a boxing fan.

She said she got material for her thesis by using a device called an electromyograph to measure the potential of muscles.

Despite her great store of boxing lore Dr. Brothers said that her first aim in life is to be a good housewife.

"Psychology is secondary," she said.

COACH CALUFETTI CONGRATULATES Tony Beal on being chosen the outstanding HTHS football player by local news, radio, and TV sportsmen.

Robinson To Try to Win Title for Third Time in Bout with Olson Tonight

TALE OF TAPE ON OLSON-ROBINSON BOUT

CHICAGO — The tale of the tape on midweight champion Bobo Olson and challenger Ray Robinson:

	Robinson	Olson
Age	35	27
Weight	160	160
Height	5-11	5-10½
Reach	72½	70
Chest normal	36½	39
Chest Exp.	38	42
Waist	28½	32
Thigh	19¾	22
Calf	13¾	13½
Biceps	11¾	14
Forearm	10¾	11
Neck	15	16

CHICAGO — Sugar Ray Robinson, making the most dramatic appearance of his remarkable career, will try to break precedent tonight and win the world midweight title for the third time in his third fight with Carl (Bobo) Olson at Chicago Stadium.

In the same Chicago ring where he first won the 160-pound crown in 1951, Sugar Ray—now 35 years old—will try to hammer out a glorious climax to the comeback dreams that brought him out of a two-year retirement.

At his peak the slender New York Negro who formerly wore the welterweight and middleweight diadems was perhaps the greatest all-around fighter of our era; but now the big question is: "Are his legs gone?"

Has he the stamina to last the title distance of 15 rounds if necessary, against the persistently pressing champion from San Francisco, a master at close-quarter fighting?

Hopes For Knockout

Sugar Ray hopes he can evade answering that question by knocking out the prematurely baldish, 27-year-old Bobo within seven rounds of their nationally televised and broadcast classic.

Because of the "legs question," Olson is favored at 14-5 to make a successful fourth defense of the title, although he was knocked out by Robinson (12) on Oct. 26, 1950, and outpointed by the sugar man on March 13, 1952. Their second fight was for the midweight title.

Sugar Ray has had one exhibition and six fights since he came out of retirement in November, 1954. He was not impressive in his fights although he won five of the six.

Trounced In Only Defeat

In his only defeat, in the second comeback fight with Ralph "Tiger" Jones, he suffered such a thorough trouncing it seemed he might be stopped. The ex-champion's record includes 88 knockouts. He was stopped only by Joey Maxim in their light heavyweight title fight when Robinson collapsed from the 104 degree heat.

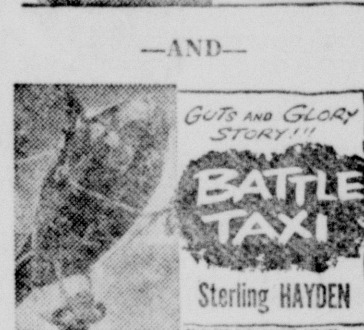

Olson has improved much since his earlier fights with Robinson; but many boxing men believe the Hawaiian-born champion already has started to fade. He was knocked out in the third round by light heavyweight champion Archie Moore on June 22, and he was unimpressive while winning decisions over Jimmy Martinez, Aug. 1, and Joey Giambra, Aug. 28. There are rumors he has become a playboy.

His 65-7-0 record includes 30 knockouts. He was kayoed only by Robinson and Moore.

Harrisburg Eastern Star Officers Installed in Impressive Ceremony

In an impressive candlelight ceremony held last evening in the lodge room of the Masonic temple Mrs. Nelia Douglas was installed as worthy matron of the Harrisburg chapter No. 671 of the order of the Eastern Star of Illinois. William Douglas was installed as worthy patron for the ensuing year.

The hall was beautifully decorated with a blue Christmas tree with gold ornaments, the colors of the grand matron of the Order of the Eastern Star of Illinois. A standard of gold chrysanthemums was placed to the right of the platform and candelabra containing blue tapers illuminated the room. Candelighters were Janet Hill and Judy Estes.

Installing officers were Elizabeth Davenport, past Grand matron of the Order of the Eastern Star of Illinois, who served as installing Grand officer; Mamie Bramlet, member of the Eligibility committee of the Grand chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star of Illinois, installing Grand chaplain; Madge Johnson, past matron of Harrisburg chapter, installing Grand marshal, and Laura Slack, member of Galatia chapter, installing Grand organist.

Escorts were R. C. Davenport, Ray Johnson and Wendell Bramlet, and color bearer was William E. Douglas.

The welcoming speech was given by Mrs. E. Bishop Hill who served as retiring worthy patron for Cecil Damron who had been called to Rochester, Minn., where her husband is critically ill in the Mayo Clinic.

The ceremony was opened with the song "He" sung by Mrs. Larry Barnhill, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Clayton Slack. Following the installation of the worthy matron, Mrs. Barnhill sang "I'll Walk With God" and after the worthy patron had taken his place on the platform she sang "You'll Never Walk Alone."

Mrs. Douglas' grandsons, Bill Douglas and Jeff Barter, presented her with a bouquet of pink carnations.

Nationalist UN Action to Block New Members

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Nationalist China today threw the United Nations into an uproar that threatened to block the admission of any new U. N. members this year.

The Security Council scheduled a meeting Saturday to consider the controversial membership issue.

But diplomatic observers said there was little chance of any country getting in this year unless the major powers devise a new formula.

The Security Council was confronted at the outset by a procedural debate sparked by Nationalist China's surprise move in nominating 13 non-Communist countries for U. N. membership.

The Nationalist move came shortly after the General Assembly approved by a vote of 52-2 a resolution urging the Security Council to admit 18 countries, including five Communist satellites.

The General Assembly list included Albania, Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania and Outer Mongolia, all Communist satellites, and Austria, Cambodia, Ceylon, Finland, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Jordan, Laos, Libya, Nepal, Portugal and Spain.

The Nationalist nominations excluded the Communist countries as well as Finland and Nepal, which recognize Red China. They substituted the Republic of Korea and free South Viet Nam.

This put the Security Council in the position of deciding which group should be voted on first, and the Nationalists were expected to demand priority for theirs.

Edward L. Heister presented the past patron's jewel to E. Bishop Hill who told in his response of the wonderful year that he had ended serving as worthy patron and of the duties that must be fulfilled to have a successful chapter.

At the close of the program Mrs. Ralph Woolard sang "Dearest Mother of Mine" to Mrs. Douglas, and "Always" to Mr. Douglas, requested by their children, Mrs. Norma Barter and William E. Douglas.

Mrs. Barnhill sang "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction.

Other officers installed were Irene Shaw, associate matron; William Brashears, associate patron; Mabel Plumlee, secretary; Mary Richardson, treasurer; Anne Wiley, conductress; Lenora Brashears, a associate conductress; Elaine Woolard, chaplain; Helen Scott, marshal; Sybil Whitley, organist; Norma D. Barter, Adah; Edith McCormack, Ruth; Hazel Potter, Esther; Gladys Ewell, Martha, and Lorene Kerr, Electa; Maude Stricklin, warder, and Elmer McCormack, sentinel.

Other officers are Don Scott, color bearer; Mary K. Woolard, soloist, and Mamie Bramlet, instructress.

Pinkneyville Man Fired as Guard at Stateville Prison

JOLIET, Ill. (AP)—A 21-year-old guard at Stateville Prison will be charged with trading and trafficking with prisoners, Warden Joseph E. Ragen said today.

Ervin J. Lee of Pinkneyville was fired Thursday after he was found with letters from half a dozen convicts to persons outside and 15 bullets in the pockets of his uniform, Ragen said.

One of the letters was from Albert Ross, a convicted murderer, asking a friend to give Lee $600. Ragen said there sometimes is an agreement for guards to get half of any money they smuggle to prisoners.

The warden said he was investigating to make certain Lee had not taken a gun to one of the prisoners. Lee told Ragen he had taken the .22 caliber bullets from his home over the weekend and had forgotten to take them out of his pockets.

The penalty for trading with prisoners could be as much as a $1,000 fine and one year in jail.

Nixon Calls for Freer Latin American Trade

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon called today for freer trade between the United States and Latin America to cement good will in the Western Hemisphere.

Nixon said the Latin American countries now working to improve their economies want neither "grants nor soft loans but an opportunity of developing wider markets in the United States."

"It is up to us now to help them in this by supporting President Eisenhower's liberal trade program," he commented in an interview.

Nixon endorsed the efforts of Uruguayan President Luis Batlle Berres who is visiting the United States in the interest of lower tariffs and fewer trade restrictions.

Twins Celebrate 92nd Birthday

The land area of Alberta, Canadian province, is larger than that of Idaho, Oregon, and Washington combined.

Dulles Outlines New Strategy to Aid Free World

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration campaigned today for a stronger and more prosperous free world to counter Russia's new shift from violence to deceit.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles spelled out this policy of peaceful strength Thursday night in a major speech before the Illinois Manufacturers' Assn. in Chicago.

The administration strategy, which includes the ever-ready threat of "massive retaliation" against Communist aggression, is this country's answer to the state-mate at the Geneva foreign ministers' conference.

If not followed, Dulles warned, Russia will switch back to a program of violence in world affairs. To carry out its strategy, Dulles said, the United States will work for stronger free world defenses and new funds for foreign aid.

Price Of Peace

The ability to hit back with atomic weapons is an "indispensable price of peace" and part of the military defense, Dulles said, while the new foreign aid funds will be sought to help Asians and other nations facing new Soviet exploitation. Dulles put much stress on the problem of Asia where, he said, touring Russian leaders now are purveying "guile" and "false promises." He said he is sure India and other nations will not succumb to their "false promises."

Extraordinary importance was attached to Dulles' somewhat "tough" speech. It was delivered only a few hours after the secretary met at Camp David, Md., with President Eisenhower and the top-level National Security Council. It came just ahead of next Tuesday's Eisenhower-Dulles meeting at the White House with congressional leaders.

Changed Capitals

In May, 1864, Montana became a territory with Bannack as its capital, but when richer strikes were made near Virginia City, the latter was made the seat of government. Helena, the present capital, became the capital ten years later.

Don't Give Your Life for Christmas

The Christmas season is one with a wealth of special memories and associations for everyone. Children's wide-eyed wonder at Santa Claus, the spicy odor of holly, day baking, the lovely sacred music, whatever Christmas means to you, all seem part of a renewed spirit of peace and good will.

At this time of faith and festivity, says O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, it is perhaps difficult, and certainly shocking, to realize that more people are killed in traffic accidents on Christmas Day than on any other day in the year.

Deadly December

Motor vehicle accidents in December 1953 killed 3,920 persons.

Motor vehicle accidents in December 1954 killed 3,570.

—7— persons died in motor vehicle accidents in December 1955.

Will you be one of the number that will fill the blank for this December?

If we could sharply reduce the number of deaths this year, it would be a wonderful contribution to the season's joy. That should be the purpose of each and every one of us as we walk and drive our way through this holiday season. Remember, slow down and live.

Heavy Donations Made For Religious Buildings

NEW YORK (AP)—American citizens have given over $2,600,000,000 for new religious structures in the past five years, according to the American Association of Fund-Raising Councils, Inc.

Since 1950, the Association states, the value of all church property has increased from $5,235,000,000 to an estimated $7,846,000,000 in 1955.

New religious construction totaled $409,000,000 in 1950, and there has been a continuing upswing in such construction, except for the year 1952. Present estimates are that 1955 will set an all time record of $700,000,000 in new construction.

For Decorations to Pretty Up Home Let Your Fancy Range Unleashed

The whole idea behind Christmas decor is a matter of taste. And while there are many symbols for Christmas, you can follow your own heart and come up with a beautiful home.

There is everything from the simple red tablecloth with an evergreen centerpiece to the front lawn that depicts a range of scenes from a Christmas pageant to Snow White and the seven dwarfs.

The place to start your decor is the tree. Usually the trimmings are the familiar and happy lights, balls and tinsel. Today, however, you can add glints of silver or snow. An outfit called Krylon has come up with a spray that does the job.

For under the tree, there are materials made especially to keep the pine needles from getting into the rug. Chase Bag, for example, has a decorative material that will fit under any tree and add its own colors.

If you live in an apartment with little room for a big tree, you'll find small, table-sized trees available. Halvorsen, one tree firm—puts out the miniature spruces that have been processed to make them fire resistant and truly evergreen.

One famous decorating and wrapping outfit, Tie-Tie, has done a mantel with strings of paper chain. The motif is carried over from the mantel to hanging fixtures, over windows and doors. The chain also fits well as a string for the tree and links can be used to decorate packages.

The Spice Trade Council has come up with a nice idea you may want to try. It's the usual evergreen and holly wreath, but this time fresh fruit and pungent spices are added. It sparks what could easily be just another wreath in the house.

Candy is more than edible and more than simple tree decoration. Fanny Farmer has designed a candy mobile—a fixture of candy cones and sticks and fruit that hangs balanced delicately from wires and moves ever so slowly with the home air currents.

One place you'll be sure to decorate will be your table. Your best silver will be out. So will your best napery and china. You'll find that buffet tables tend to look flat with all the appointments lying down.

The Oneida silver people have come up with an idea to replace the usual candlesticks. They've used hurricane lamps on the table to give the vertical lines you need.

Cook Own Breakfast, Working Girl Advised

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—A Milwaukee home economist and cookbook author believes that working women should cook their own breakfast.

Mrs. Ethel Keating, who teaches a course called "successful home-making" at the Milwaukee YWCA, told her students "you can cook an interesting breakfast at home in no more than it takes to be served coffee and a sweet roll at the corner store on your way to the office."

22 Bank, Loan Firm Robberies So Far This Year

CHICAGO (AP)—The FBI reported today that there have been 22 robberies of banks and savings and loan associations in northern Illinois so far this year.

The loot totaled $142,974, the FBI said, for an average of $6,498 per robbery.

A spokesman said there has been a noticeable increase in the number of such thefts in this area.

Of the 22 cases, the records showed that only 2 have been solved.

The figures are for the 26 counties in the northern Illinois district and do not include the $74,000 robbery at Lake Geneva, Wis., Wednesday, nor two recent holdups in Hammond, Ind.

Most of the listed robberies were in the Chicago area. The biggest was the $54,287 robbery of the River Forest State Bank in suburban River Forest, Ill., last March 17.

Other big robberies included the $21,906 theft from the Maywood-Provido State Bank of suburban Maywood, on Nov. 4, and the $14,702 robbery of the Genoa State Bank of Genoa, Ill., last Jan. 7.

Turn 3 Girls Over to Parents

EAST PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—Three young girls were turned over to their parents today for punishment after admitting they ordered steak dinners sent to the home of an elderly East Peoria woman.

The youngsters, aged 10, 11 and 12, were caught by East Peoria police and Illinois Bell Telephone officials after a call had been traced to one of their homes. The call was to order a load of coal and 25 yards of ready-mixed concrete. It was not delivered.

The materials, which also included merchandise from local stores, had been ordered for Miss Cora B. Mobilo, 80, who complained to police last week. She said she also had been receiving anonymous phone calls day and night since Oct. 1.

Police said the youngsters' parents agreed to make reasonable settlements with merchants for the merchandise and provide "proper punishment" for the three.

Duncan Hines Concedes: Women Top Cooks

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Duncan Hines, a famous food expert, says he can fry eggs pretty well and broil steaks occasionally, but his wife does most of the cooking in his household.

Hines disagreed with the notion that men are better cooks than women. "My wife is a wonderful cook, and I think most women do the job better than most men," he said.

State Health Department Finds 'Some Immunity' for Polio Vaccinated Children

SPRINGFIELD — The Illinois Health Department today released comparative figures on polio cases of vaccinated and non-vaccinated youngsters and said they indicated "some immunity" for the vaccinated children.

The children who were vaccinated received one shot of the Salk polio vaccine as part of the nationwide program of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis last spring. The figures covered vaccinated and unvaccinated children in the 6-to-9 age group.

The 375,200 vaccinated children turned up with 77 cases of polio, 11 of them paralytic. A total of 135 cases developed in the 360,800 unvaccinated children, 44 of them paralytic. The unvaccinated paralytic cases included 2 deaths.

The department reported a total of 1,368 polio cases for Illinois so far this year, compared with 2,148 for the same period last year. Ten cases were reported this week compared with 23 in the same week in 1954.

In the April-October period for which the vaccinated-unvaccinated report was made, a total of 1,282 cases of polio were reported

WINTER COW CARE TIPS

Application of good practices like these will help dairies come through winter in good condition and with good production.

Ventilate. Cow comfort calls for a well ventilated barn and temperature ranging from 45 to 60°.

Warm water cuts feed bill. Check water heaters now to be sure they are working. Cows often use part of their feed as "fuel" to warm cold water. If water is cold, they won't drink enough for top production.

Sanitation is extremely important during cold weather. Keep clean bedding under cows. Clip around udders and flanks to make cleaning easier.

Look for lice. They're troublesome at this season. Dust Purina Insect Killer on cows and rub into hair.

Wash udders before milking. This is not a substitute for clipping. Use Purina Disinfectant solution on udders, hands and equipment to keep bacterial count low.

If trouble starts call your veterinarian for diagnosis and treatment.

Cornelia Leavell Circle Has Lottie Moon Program And Christmas Party

The Cornelia Leavell circle, known as the "Business Women's circle" of the First Baptist church, met at the educational building Tuesday evening for its regular Royal Service meeting and Christmas party.

A delicious and colorful Christmas dinner was enjoyed by the 28 women present preceding the meeting.

Mrs. Harriett Land, treasurer, and Mrs. Thelma Josey, mission study chairman, sat at a special desk to receive the love offering and the special "Lottie Moon" Christmas offering from each member as she entered the beautifully decorated dining room.

From a nearby table, Mrs. Hazel May served cranberry punch in which floated a frozen cranberry ring. Tiny Christmas napkins and red poinsettia plants made the table attractive.

The dining table covered with a dark green table cloth was decorated with red candles and poinsettia plants and red Christmas tree favors with little tin horns at each place.

The president, Edna Lewis, asked the blessing. Guests for the evening were Mrs. Guy Lawrence, Mrs. Joe Morman, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs. Olive Blackman and Mrs. Fannie Rich.

After the dinner Mrs. Susie Boardman gave the missionary lesson on "Lottie Moon" and Mrs. Millicent Guard gave the topic, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God." Mrs. Laverne Clayton sang "Silent Night" after which prayer was offered for foreign missionaries by Mrs. Jessie Wiley and Mrs. Esther Barger.

The total amount that the circle gave to the Lottie Moon Christmas offering was $180.50. The president expressed her appreciation to the circle for making such a fine contribution to this great missionary cause.

The members filled and presented a Thanksgiving basket to a needy family and will also give a Christmas basket to a family in need. The Sunbeam band is sponsored by the circle.

Christmas gifts were exchanged from a table on which a Christmas tree decorated with bubbling lights stood. Mrs. Lewis acted as Santa Claus, climaxing the evening.

First Baptist Pauline Moore Circle Has Lottie Moon Program

Mrs. Pat Gilley was hostess to the Pauline Moore circle of the First Baptist church Tuesday evening for its program on the Lottie Moon season of prayer.

During the business meeting it was decided to have the Christmas party on Dec. 20 in the educational building with an exchange of one dollar gifts.

The program chairman, Mrs. Henry Hancock, opened the lesson, "Haste—Pray—Make Known," with the devotion. The program was given as a panel discussion with Mrs. Ron Ziegler as leader.

Places discussed where Southern Baptist missionaries are serving in churches, missions, seminaries, hospitals and schools were the Orient, Africa, Latin America, the Near East and other European countries. White signs with the countries written in blue lettering were placed in front of the panel composed of Mrs. James Sowers, Mrs. D. H. Hiller, Mrs. Donald Boyd and Mrs. Gilley. Miss Barbara Fearheiley acted as the Lottie Moon representative telling how the Lottie Moon offerings were distributed among the different mission fields.

Dainty cookies and coffee were served during the social hour.

Deaths Drop, Births Climb in State During '54

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Illinois' death rate plunged to a record low in 1954 and the birth rate climbed to a near-record level, State Health Department statistics revealed today.

The death rate dropped to 10.1 per thousand population with a total of 92,307 deaths. The previous low was 10.5 in 1951.

The birth rate, meanwhile, reached 23.9 live births per thousand population, second only to the record of 24.2 set in 1947.

Births totaled 217,229 in 1954, an increase of 10,416 over 1953.

There were about 125,000 more births than deaths in the state in 1954, but the population is not expected to show quite that large an increase because out-state migration usually exceeds immigration.

The state population had climbed to about 9,200,000 in mid-1955.

The department statistics also showed the number of children and aged persons in the state is on the increase and that the non-white birth rate is greater than the white.

The under-20 and over-65 age groups are growing, while the middle or 20-64 age group is "contracting for the time being," the department said.

The birth rate of non-whites increased from 10.5 per cent of all births to 13.3 per cent in 1954.

The white birth rate in 1950 was 21 per thousand and the non-white rate was 30 per thousand.

Deaths Drop, Births Climb in State During '54

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Illinois' death rate plunged to a record low in 1954 and the birth rate climbed to a near-record level, State Health Department statistics revealed today.

The death rate dropped to 10.1 per thousand population with a total of 92,307 deaths. The previous low was 10.5 in 1951.

The birth rate, meanwhile, reached 23.9 live births per thousand population, second only to the record of 24.2 set in 1947.

Births totaled 217,229 in 1954, an increase of 10,416 over 1953.

"There is every reason to believe," the department said, "that currently also the white birth rate is no more than two-thirds of the non-white rate."

Negro births in Chicago were 46.5 per cent greater in 1954 than in 1950, while downstate Negro births were 42.2 per cent greater than in 1954.

Downstate white births in 1954 increased 16.1 per cent in 1950, but Chicago white births were only 2.2 per cent greater in 1954 than in 1950.

Early Bridge Builders

Masonry arch bridges of crude construction appear to have been used first by the Chinese and by the prehistoric Hittite and Pelasgic tribes along the Mediterranean. The Etruscans and Romans improved these bridge forms.

First in Forests

California ranks first in national forests, with more than 25,000,000 acres. Idaho, Alaska, Montana, and Oregon, follow in that order.
